Clinician Teacher Position in emergency medicine

Temporary position | Full time or part time | 12 months

Centre hospitalier universitaire vétérinaire (CHUV)
Faculty of Veterinary Medicine | Direction

The Faculté de médecine vétérinaire (FMV) of the Université de Montréal is currently seeking qualified candidates for a clinician teacher position in emergency medicine. The FMV is located in Saint-Hyacinthe, the agricultural capital of Quebec. The chosen person will work within the Centre hospitalier universitaire vétérinaire (CHUV) in collaboration with several specialists - anesthesiology, dentistry, dermatology, internal medicine, medical imaging, neurology, ophthalmology - committed to providing the best veterinary care. This selected person will work within a team comprising one (1) professor and four (4) clinicians' teacher in intensive care and emergency medicine, two (2) residents and two (2) specialty interns.

With more than 6,065 patients presented to the Emergency Department annually, the team offers services 365 days a year and welcomes all types of cases (referred or not). In an open intensive care concept, approximately 5 hospitalized patients (1-10) are under the direct responsibility of the critical care unit. The services have the equipment necessary to provide the best patient care, including a Servo-U mechanical ventilator, an Aimalojic hemoperfusion machine, two high-flow oxygen units and an Entegrion VCM device.

We are looking for a clinician teacher who is comfortable managing standard first-line emergency cases.

To find out everything about FMV and discover the excitement of its faculty life, visit our website.

As a clinician teacher, you will have the opportunity to contribute to the excellence of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine:

Through your clinical teaching (for a maximum of 90% of your task) and through tasks relating to the influence of your discipline, research activities and the functioning of the institution (for a minimum of 10% of your task). As such, you will have to:

- Participate in clinical teaching, including the delivery of care and services that meet the diverse needs of the emergency service clientele;
- Supervise undergraduate and graduate students during their internships;
- Assess student learning;
- Provide educational advice and assistance to students;

To be successful in the role, you must:

- Hold a Doctor in Veterinary Medicine (DVM) degree or equivalent;
- Have completed internship program or have at least two (2) years of relevant work experience in emergency medicine;
- Demonstrated interest in academic emergency medicine clinical education;
- Hold or obtain a license to practice veterinary medicine in the province of Quebec (Canada) issued by the Ordre des médecins vétérinaires du Quebec;
- An adequate knowledge of the French written and spoken language in accordance to Université de Montréal's Language Policy.

How to submit your application

All candidates are invited to submit a letter outlining your interests and career objectives, a curriculum vitae, a copy of your diplomas, and three letters of recommendation from professors or supervisors to:
